- March 8- Ms. Reynolds on leave. Kristy Carstairs is the new CTF foods teacher
- 10 new students to RHJ for next year.
- March 11- Superintendent Liguori visited. Talked about programming for next year. Pushing for sharing a counsellor and FSLW with Fort High.
- New water fill stations. School is able to cover these.
- Progress reports went out March 15. PTI on March 17.
- Paint the town pink. Cohort 87 won the most decorated room.
- Assurance Survey for grade 7 parents coming out this week. Want more than 34 parents doing it this year. Students and staff completing these after Spring Break
- One fee change shared. Rabbit Hill fee has went up 7%. Rental fees and lift tickets are $52.00 together.
- Options course selection for next year for 7s and 8s. Hope to have them completed by the end of the week. Grade 6s will register after the virtual orientation night. Ken physically going to the schools to do this. Running STEM and Humanities options in grade 8 and 9 next years (honours program).

- April 14th Virtual Open House for incoming grade 7 students
- Trustee Report- see attached report. Karen asked about sports for students next year. Hoping for near normal. Ken said they are planning on going ahead. There may be some limitations.
- COSC Report- ASCA Volunteer? It is online this year. ASCA is held April 23-25. Please email Ken, Sharon or Carilyn if you are interested.

Business Arising from Parent Advisory Association

- Treasurer's Report- General Account $10636.58, Casino Account $223.69. Went over the audit that needs to be sent in. Needs two volunteers to audit the audit. Lisa T and her husband volunteered to do it.
- Fundraising - Cotton Candy Fundraiser - AMAZING Success!! $1176 made for parent council. Support the Fort Fundraising Initiative. Carilyn suggested doing one in May. Talked to Mandy at the Fort Theatre about popcorn sales. Bag costs $6, we sell it for what we want, thinking $7. Some concerns about the bags and Covid protocols. Checking in to see if pick-up can be at the Fort Theatre.
- Hot Lunch: Panago in April. Lisa T. will handle orders and logistics.
- Grade 9 Farewell Update- the Dow gave us an ultimatum, someone wanted our date. Date has been cancelled. Talked about possibly using the high school gym. Ceremony portion will be like awards- by cohort, getting their certificates. Will stream if they have to. Survey after spring break for grade 9 students.
- Casino- delayed. No news.

Other Business- nothing to discuss.

Next meeting: Monday, April 26, 2021
